I am writing to express my strong interest in the Articles position advertised by your company. I am a recent LLB graduate from the University of Zululand and I am eager to start my legal career at a prestigious firm like yours.

During my law studies, I acquired a solid foundation in key practice areas such as Contract Law, Criminal Law, and Civil Procedure. I also gained valuable practical experience as an intern at a reputable law firm in Durban, where I honed my research, writing, and analytical skills. My career aspiration is to become a qualified attorney specializing in personal injury and medical malpractice law. I believe that completing articles at your firm will equip me with the comprehensive training and hands-on legal experience I need to excel in these practice areas.

Besides my academic achievements, I have developed essential skills such as discipline, problem-solving, communication, and organization. I have demonstrated the ability to work well under pressure, meet tight deadlines, and handle multiple tasks simultaneously - skills that are vital for a successful legal career. I am also proficient in English and Xhosa, which enables me to communicate effectively with diverse clients.

I am enthusiastic about joining a team of talented legal professionals who I can learn from. I am comfortable working independently or collaboratively. Your firm's reputation as a leader in labour law and commercial litigation, as well as your commitment to social responsibility, makes it an ideal place for me to complete articles and gain expertise.

I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how I can apply my education, skills, and passion for the law to contribute positively to your firm. Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

MLUNGISI MNQOBI MTHETHWA
